

ATHLETIC MARKS

IN VARIOUS EVENTS

Many Old Records in Distance Running Still Stand Unbeaten.

NINE IN CENTURY SPRINT

Best Records in All Running, Leaping and Weight-Throwing Tests.

In the 100-yard dash Dan J. Kelly ran the distance at Spokane, Wash., in 1903-5, but his record was not allowed on account of a favoring strong wind blowing on his back. The official mark for the century dash to-day is 19.4-5, held jointly by J. V. Crum, B. J. Wefers, J. H. Maybury, J. H. Rush, Clyde Blair, Archie Hahn, Dan J. Kelly, A. C. Parsons and N. J. Carlwell.

In the 220-yard dash there should be a distinction between a straightaway and curved course. B. J. Wefers ran the distance straightaway in 21.1-5, and on a fifth of a mile track he negotiated the distance in 21.1-5, a quarter of a mile track J. H. Maybury went in 21.4-5. Around a turn on a one-third mile track P. J. Walsh ran it in 21.4-5, but Dan J. Kelly went the route around a slight curve in 21.1-5.

Maxey Long holds the undisputed record in the quarter-mile run, both on the straightaway and around a turn. At Travers Island in 1900 he ran the distance straightaway in 47 and around a 352-yard circuit path he made 47-5.

In the half mile run C. H. Kilpatrick made the phenomenal time of 1:33-2-5 in 1895. This record has not been equalled in the present outlook. It is not liable to be beaten for some time. Kilpatrick also holds the all-American college record made at Union College.

Conniff Holds Mile.
The mile record is held by T. P. Conniff, 4:13-5-5, made at Travers Island in 1895. This has not been approached in a few decades, but has stood, and it is that of Kilpatrick's show the superiority of the middle-aged distance runner of the present age.

A two-mile record, 9:27-4-5, is held by Alex. Grant, and was made at Travers Island in 1902. This record has stood, and it is that of Kilpatrick's show the superiority of the middle-aged distance runner of the present age.

The 120-yard hurdle record is held by A. C. Kraenzlein, at 15-1-2, made in Chicago in 1898. The former record, made by A. C. Kraenzlein, at 15-1-2, made in Chicago in 1898. The former record, made by A. C. Kraenzlein, at 15-1-2, made in Chicago in 1898.

Rose in Class by Himself.
In the shotput there is one man who "has it on" all his rivals, but there is a strong possibility his record will meet the test of the present writing. Rose is liable to suspension from the A. A. U. on the grounds of professionalism.

The world's record in the shotput is held by Rose, at 44 feet 1-4 inches, made in 1906. The American record is 41 feet 1-4 inches, made by M. Prinstein at 1900.

The highest mark yet reached by any pole vaulter was made by Walter Dean, at 16 feet 1-4 inches, made at New York in 1907. The American record is 15 feet 1-4 inches, made by Leroy Sams at Chicago in 1905.

Sheridan Supreme With Discus.
In the discus throw Martin J. Sheridan holds the undisputed title, with a throw of 145 feet 4 inches, made at New York in 1907. The American record is 137 feet 1-4 inches, made by M. Prinstein at 1900.

Kanzler's Record
The sixteen-pound hammer, including the weight of the head and handle, 172 feet 11 inches is the record at Long Island City in 1904. John Kanzler, of New York, is the holder of the record.

There are some records which, although not on the regular order of the standard meet, are sometimes put in, especially the indoor meets, where lack of floor space will not permit of longer dashes.

The 55-yard five-yard dash the best time made is 1.04, made by A. W. Grosvenor, C. B. Blair and Frank Walder. W. D. Eaton holds the fourth best time, at 1.04, made at New York in 1907.

He Carries the White Man's Burden.
Of the 100,000,000 humans known to exist in the world, 80,000,000, or four-fifths, are of the white race. They are scattered through the tropics and are largely employed in the service of temperate zone visitors or residents, and especially the white man's burden.

In the United States and Canada we have a large number of people of the South American, 1 for every 12 in Mexico, 1 for every 12 in Japan, 1 for every 10 in Turkey, for 50 in the United States. It was said at the time of the war that the white man's burden was to carry the white man's burden.

Middle Delighted
ANNAPOLIS, IND., January 7.—The announcement that a race has been arranged between the Navy and Harvard for the coming season, has been met with delight among the students of the Naval Academy, who have been waiting for the race with Harvard for some time.

WOMAN DRIVER IN AUTOMOBILE RACE

There may be one woman competitor for the Brainerd trophy in the 300-mile stock car race in Westchester county on April 24th. Mrs. Cuneo has announced her intention of entering her "50" Ruyner, and if the entry be accepted, of driving it herself. Mrs. Cuneo, whose husband is a banker, has competed in several contests; but driven in two Glidden tours and demonstrated her ability to handle a high power car. Her success in coming through the Glidden tour of last summer was a feat that led the other competitors to subscribe to a testimonial cup for her. Mrs. Cuneo claims recognition on the ground of having been in other races and proved her ability. She argues there are women racers in Europe, and that there is no reason why there should not be the same here.

CUE CHAMPIONSHIPS
Pool and Three-Cushion Billiard Series to be Held in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, MO., January 7.—St. Louis will be the scene of two splendidly contested cue championships late in January and early in February, according to announcements made last night. The Rex Hall will get both matches. The management of that establishment gave out that starting January 27th, the pool championship of the world will be played for by Thomas Huston, present holder of the title and champion of the world, and John Dally, who has defeated in defending the medal he now holds.

On February 6th, 7th and 8th the three-cushion billiard championship will be played for by Harry Cline, winner of the title and champion of the world, and John Dally, who has defeated in defending the medal he now holds.

LONG SHOTS GOT MOST OF THE MONEY
Alice, at the Rank Odds of 25 to 1, Started the Ball.

MISS DELANEY ALSO WINNER
Darling Dan Follows Success in the Tune of 8 to 1.

NEW ORLEANS, January 7.—Long shots carried off the honors again to-day at the Fair Grounds. Alice, at 25 to 1, won the first race. Mazzonia, a 50 to 1 shot, pushed Broken Melody for the money in the second event. In the fourth, Miss Delaney, at 10 to 1, got away with the stake. Ace High proved the top card in the concluding long distance. Summary:

First race—three furlongs—Alice (25 to 1) first, Cunniff (3 to 1) second, Mrs. Sewell (13 to 5) third. Time, 1:23-2-5.

Second race—six furlongs, selling—Broken Melody (6 to 1) first, Mazzonia (50 to 1) second, Stella Perkins (15 to 1) third. Time, 1:23-3-5.

Third race—six furlongs, selling—Nancy (4 to 1) first, Snowball (15 to 1) second, Caper (18 to 5) third. Time, 1:23-1-5.

Fourth race—five and a half furlongs—Miss Delaney (10 to 1) first, Al Muller (5 to 2) second, Hyperion II (9 to 10) third. Time, 1:14-3-5.

Fifth race—mile and seventy yards—Darling Dan (8 to 1) first, Brindley (7 to 10) second, Breakerpear (25 to 1) third. Time, 2:04-4-5.

Sixth race—mile and an eighth, selling—Ace High (7 to 5) first, Sea Salt (6 to 1) second, Ivanhoe (7 to 1) third. Time, 2:04-4-5.

VALE TO COACH GEORGETOWN
New Brunswick Sculler Goes to Washington.

NEW YORK, January 7.—The new coach of Georgetown University crews, whose identity has been kept secret since his engagement, is Harry Vall, the well-known sculler, of New Brunswick, N. J., who has been coaching the Yale crew at Harvard and the Harvard crew at Yale.

ANOTHER BASEBALL LEAGUE
Andy Lawson to Effect Organization and Ask for Class A Protection.

PHILADELPHIA, January 7.—A new baseball organization, to be known as the Philadelphia and New Jersey League, was launched in this city yesterday, when delegates representing Camden, Chester, Hoboken, Trenton, Lancaster, and Philadelphia met and agreed on minor details.

Sporting Letters.
The sporting editor of The Times-Dispatch will gladly answer in these columns any question regarding sports, and will also be pleased to print and comment on any letter addressed to him.

Hanson's Death.
Sporting Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir—I learn with regret of the death of Edward Hanson, better known as Ned, who was a sculler at the time of the 1904 Olympic games. He was a very good sculler and was a member of the Yale crew.

Regatta at Washington.
It is not improbable that the Middle States Regatta this year will be rowed on the Potomac river at Washington. The Washingtonians are hot after the medal, and promise that if the regatta committee favors them nothing will be left undone to guarantee the visiting crews a fine course, and there is a good possibility of their winning the regatta.

Yale Strong Man.
Yale has another find in John R. Kilpatrick. Kilpatrick has beaten Coy's record for total strength, making 13,100 units as against Coy's 12,444, which was the high record for Yale. Kilpatrick is an all-around bigger man than Coy.

Edmund H. Coy.
The great Yale full-back, who likewise is a fine baseball player, has received a number of offers to go into professional baseball, but he has turned them all down.

1870—At San Francisco—John Deary defeated Cyril Dion in billiard.

1875—Match for $1,000 and championship.

1883—Jack Ashton, heavyweight boxer and John L. Sullivan's sparring partner, died in New York.

1894—At Chicago—Jacob Schaefer, Frank Ives and George F. Slosson began a sweetstake billiard rivalry. Ended with Schaefer and Ives tied for first place.

1903—At Chicago—"Wild" Herman and Clarence Forbes fought six rounds to a draw.

PLAYERS WHO LEAD IN FOOTBALL ELEVENS

Great Teams Have Chosen Their Star Players as Captains.

DILLON CAPTAINS THE TIGERS

List of Captains of All Leading Teams of the Country in 1908.

NEW YORK, January 7.—All the colleges have elected football leaders for 1908. In almost every case the choice has fallen upon a man who has done sensational work during the past fall. This is particularly true of the larger colleges, so the leaders are bound to be seen and heard from during the next football year.

Princeton has chosen little "Eddie" Dillon to lead its eleven. Dillon plays quarterback and is one of the most dashing players in the country. He was the choice of many of the critics for this year's All-American team, and fully deserves the honor. F. H. Burr will lead Harvard University.

Yale has chosen "Bill" Hollenback to lead its eleven. Hollenback and Walder are men that already have become famous in football.

P. W. Northcott has been chosen to succeed Captain Douglas at Annapolis. Northcott plays tackle. It was he who scored the goal from place in 1907.

The following list shows the captains of next season and the positions they occupy.

Pennsylvania, William Hollenback, fullback; Harvard, Francis H. Burr, tackle; Cornell, G. H. Walder, fullback; Princeton, Eddie Dillon, quarterback; Yale, Eddie Dillon, quarterback; Michigan, Walter Steffen, quarterback; Vanderbilt, Sam Costen, quarterback; West Point, Wallace Phillon, tackle; Annapolis, J. W. Northcott, tackle; Holy Cross, J. W. Driggs, tackle; Pennsylvania State, McCleary, halfback; Oberlin, House, end; Hampden-Sidney, Fleming, end; North Carolina, George C. Thomas, end; Georgetown, Ed. Miller, end; Susquehanna, Charles L. Myers, halfback; Washington, Charles C. ferson, Don P. Vint, tackle; California, George C. Barr, halfback; Fordham, Leo Fitzpatrick, tackle; Virginia, William C. Cloth, center; St. John's, J. H. Bosley, quarterback; Dickinson, Harry H. Harry, tackle; Swarthmore, Harry J. O'Brien, tackle; Lafayette, Ralph G. Chalmers, halfback; Lehigh, Garret De P. Spiers, halfback; Colgate, Robert Whalen, halfback; Syracuse, Frank Horv, tackle; New York, George A. Young, end; Wesleyan, M. A. Hammond, tackle; Brown, John W. Maynard, tackle; Maine, Harrison P. Higgins, halfback; Trinity, Arthur B. Henshaw, halfback; Bowdoin, Thomas C. Cummings, tackle; Dartmouth, G. F. Kenner, end; Williams, Gilbert J. Morse, guard; Tufts, Vincent Shensky, halfback; New Hampshire, C. H. Wilkin, fullback; Massachusetts "argies," H. W. Turner, end; Phillips-Andover, E. A. Rosindale, halfback; Phillips, Exeter, J. T. Thomas, end; Bates, I. Cochran, center; Springfield, T. S. Chester, fullback; Colby, Ralph G. Briggs, center; Colby, Ralph G. Briggs, center; Notre Dame, Harry Miller, tackle; Illinois, F. C. Van Hook, guard; Washington (St. Louis), Fred Bock, tackle; Iowa, "Chick" Kirk, halfback; Drake, Bert McCoy, halfback; Olivet, William C. Barr, halfback; Virginia, William C. Cloth, center; Tegetmeier, center; Columbia (Portland), Dean Walker, fullback; Kansas, N. R. Augney, quarterback; Oklahoma, Key Wolf, tackle; Grinnell, Geo. Pierce, guard; Alma, Hugh Ferguson, center; Seattle, L. Martin, fullback; Georgia Tech, Lapierre, tackle; Georgia, Chip Roberts, quarterback; Tennessee, James W. Leach, halfback; Auburn, G. AMUSEMENTS

Academy, Matinee and Night—"Metz in the Alps."

It is the subtle charm of personality that wins such admiration for Miss Mary Manning's portrayal of "Gloster Bates" and the Academy at evening one of the most brilliant audiences of the season sat under the spell of this charming actress. The genial influence of Miss Manning's smile and her many delightful little mannerisms fascinated the audience. She is a perfect actress, her every move is graceful, and her voice lingers in the memory. Great actress, no one of the most charming, perhaps, on the stage to-day, yes. The very strength of her personality prevents her from being a rank and file actress. Between the great actress and the charming one there is all the difference in the world. Those who witnessed Miss Manning's work last night will no doubt have pleasant memories of the performance for the remainder of the season.

The play is one of those pretty little affairs that remind one somewhat of the clever dramatizations of Paul Kester. It is a play that serves its purpose well, since it is so admirably adapted to Miss Manning.

At 8 o'clock, the play "The Golden-Voiced Singer," who will appear in the title role of the new play, will be introduced. The play is a gem entitled "Fairer Flower of All," while in pleasing succession come "Wilson's Lullaby," "Snitzelbank," "Switzer Le Boy" and "Songs of Old Fatherland."

New Superintendent for Orphanage.
Special to The Times-Dispatch: LYNCHBURG, VA., January 7.—At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian Orphanage last night, Rev. Polling Hobson, of Petersburg, Va., was elected superintendent of the institution to succeed Rev. C. W. Maxwell.
